

What on earth is a carbon footprint?

Every person in the world has one. It's the amount of carbon dioxide emitted due to your daily activities—from washing a load of laundry to driving a carload of kids to school. Find out the size of your household's carbon footprint, learn how you can reduce it, and see how we're reducing ours at bp.com/carbonfootprint. It's a start.

beyond petroleum®